

Move on -

WIGAN & LEIGH
COLLEGE

Brush up your English or Maths skills

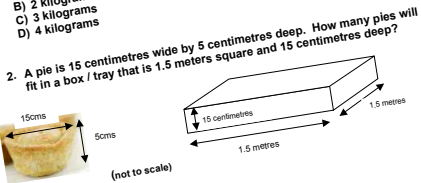

- ✓ gain confidence
- ✓ increase your job prospects
- ✓ enhance your CV
- ✓ support your children with their homework
- ✓ gain entry to other College courses
- ✓ get your English and Maths qualifications up-to-date

Do you know your ~~pi~~ from your pie?

Numeracy Level 2

1. A baker wants to make 100 pies with the ratio of 2:3 parts of potato to meat. If one pie contains 50 grams of filling how many grams of meat are needed for the 100 pies?
- A) 1 kilogram
B) 2 kilograms
C) 3 kilograms
D) 4 kilograms

- A) 450
B) 350
C) 300
D) 150

Numeracy Level 1

3. A meat & potato pie filling (125 grams) is a minimum of 60 % meat. How many grams of meat are there in the pie?
- A) 60
B) 65
C) 70
D) 75
4. A bakery advertises their pies as containing a minimum of 20% meat. What is this as a fraction?
- A) A quarter
B) A fifth
C) An eighth
D) A tenth

Answers
1C, 2A, 3D, 4B

Try our FREE skills check to assess your level.

Literacy Level 2

1. Which of the following should not have an apostrophe?
- A) The pie's filling is meat and potato.
B) All of the pie's are hot.
C) Her pie's from the Wigan and Leigh College café.
D) He's on the diet so he is having salad with his pie!
2. The local pie shop owner wants to reduce the cost of pies whilst avoiding them diminishing in size or changing them in any detectable way.
The phrase 'diminishing in size' could be replaced with
- A) becoming smaller
B) becoming larger
C) changing shape
D) changing proportion

Literacy Level 1

3. Choose the correct spelling to go in the space in the sentence below:
Place the mixture in the pie tin. Trim the dough if _____.
- A) necessary
B) necessary
C) necessary
D) necessary
4. When I were young, my mum always baked a pie each Thursday.
The word 'were' is incorrect. It should be:
- A) am
B) is
C) was
D) are

Answers
1B, 2A, 3C, 4C

L1 and L2 are at GCSE standard.

Fast-track your skills!

Take our short* course (12-14 hours) to get an English or maths qualification.

*Some additional study may be required.

Courses offered at 3 levels:

- entry level (assignment based)
- level 1* (multiple choice assessment)
- level 2* (multiple choice assessment)

To book your skills check call Sheila on 01942 761518