

BEAUTY & HAIRDRESSING

Welcome to our Hair and Beauty newsletter specially created for you to see what's been happening in the department you will be joining this September.

Our students have been working harder than ever, despite the lockdown restrictions, which meant new ways of working from home for much of the year.

Highlights include competition success, celebrity messages for students studying during lockdown and a trip to Wella.

SUMMER FESTIVAL FACES

Student makeup artists (MUAs) practised their skills at home creating festival looks for lockdown.

CORONATION STREET STAR'S MESSAGE OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Corrie's Catherine Tyldesley posted a personal message to hair and beauty students during lockdown to encourage them to work hard at home.

The former soap star, whose family has been directly affected by Covid-19, reminded hair and beauty students that their services would be in high demand as we all emerge from lockdown.

LONG-HAIR SPECIALIST MOTIVATES HAIRDRESSERS AT HOME

International hairdresser and long-hair specialist, Patrick Cameron, who launched the Image Centre at Parsons Walk, shared his demos and motivational posts for students during lockdown, with a special shoutout for Wigan & Leigh College students.

MUA MASTERCLASSES

The Image Centre played host to guest MUA Samantha Helen, who showcased her body art masterpieces, while special effects MUA, Emily Walsh, demonstrated burns techniques.

Students found out more about film and TV makeup from the experts before they swapped their salon experience to learning at home.

UNIVERSITY PLACES

Media Makeup & Special Effects students, Michaela Gregory and Rebecca Ruthven have progressed to the Foundation Degree (FdA) Special Effects Make-up Artistry at UCEN Manchester.

REALITY TV STAR'S 'STAY SAFE' MESSAGE

Real Housewife of Cheshire Tanya Bardsley's lockdown message for Hair and Beauty students provided a welcome boost for those getting used to learning at home.

WELLA STUDIOS SHARE THE LATEST CUTTING AND COLOURING TECHNIQUES

Level 2 Hairdressing students visited the Wella studios in Manchester to learn more new colouring and cutting techniques.
