INTRODUCTION TO BRITISH SIGN LANGUAGE (BSL)

This new programme forms part of a nationwide initiative to promote the use of sign language.

The six-week programme is delivered in two hourly modules that offer an introduction to deafness. You will learn a range of BSL signs that are useful in everyday life.

This course provides the first steps towards further BSL qualifications coming soon.

The programme covers:

- A comprehensive introduction to British Sign Language.
- Deaf awareness, deaf culture and working with deaf people in educational settings.
- BSL greetings, manual alphabet, lip-reading exercises and tips on effective communication.
- General conversation skills - 'how are you?', 'what's your name?', 'where do you live?'.
- All about me: name, age, home.
- Numbers, dates, months and colours.
- Family members, relationships and friends.

The programme is delivered by highly experienced, award-winning BSL tutor, Esmail Patel.

Esmail is a passionate teacher and advocate for the deaf community, with more than 20 years experience working with schools, colleges, businesses and organisations in the development of BSL awareness and skills.

He is particularly proud of his work with young people. For more than 10 years he has been supporting young deaf people to reach their potential and achieve their goals.
